

Jennifer

Wilkins

Empowering people to learn and train in life saving skills and ready themselves in responding in an emergency to help others.

My Values

To provide pragmatic, enjoyable education for people.

Support & mentor learners to reach their potential whatever their role & wherever they work.

My Aspirations

To become a valued and experienced educator.

I advocate this quote from an inspirational colleague as a reference in providing excellence in teaching & training

"It's not what you teach that is important but what they learn"

I began to freelance in October 2025

I am self-employed, and registered under Nuco Training to run accredited courses as well as the opportunity to also run RCUK/ALSG Provider Courses

About me

I am a nurse by profession of 18 years. I worked within the NHS acute sector focusing on emergency care and 8 years specialising in resuscitation both clinical & education.

My ethos is to create opportunities for people to learn. Learn about how to help someone in a time of need, an emergency situation that ultimately could save their life.

Qualifications

- Registered Nurse
- Level 3 Teaching (PTTLS)
- RC(UK) ALS Instructor/Course Director
- RC(UK) EPALS Instructor/Course Director
- RC(UK)/ALSG GIC Instructor
- First Aid & Emergency Care Trainer

Contact me

 07972 889 497

 jenniferteachandlearn@gmail.com

